VI. Reports of Committees and Subcommittees

A. City of Statesboro

Next City Council Meeting is 1/17 at 5:30 pm in Council Chambers. This event is open to the public and will also be available for viewing on the City's Facebook page. Confirmation of receipt of request for information from Janice and her team was provided. A request for a speaker from One

Boro to share on the group was made by Jade Humphries of the Georgia Southern Counseling Center. The speaking engagement is on February 23, at 10 am.

The latest information on the transit system: there was a recall on the buses so the City still does not have possession of them. Repairs are being done to correct the recall issue(s).

Village Builders priorities are being determined. Demetrius will get back to the group if anything aligns with One Boro's work.

B. Equity Metrics Subcommittee

An email was sent to the City requesting metrics data for 2023 be provided in the next 2 months.

C. Training Subcommittee

Training remains on hold with the City.

D. The Longest Table Subcommittee

The group is vetting 4/29 as the date for the event.

E. Violence Prevention Task Force

Lewis Crane is new chair and Pamela Quiney is the new co-chair. Meeting is planned for this month—will include non-One Boro members.

F. Workforce Development Subcommittee

Meets on 1/23 at 5:30 pm. Held Work Force Summit in December. Unveiled Career Ready Bulloch website. Needs help in spreading the word about the site and in finding any errors on the site.

VII. New Business

A. Subcommittee Memberships

Everyone is a member of at least 1 subcommittee

B. One Boro Commission Retreat

Agenda ideas for the retreat were discussed

C. Social Media Presence

At this time there is no policy for commissions. Lane and Demetrius will reconvene to develop a policy and run it by legal.

VIII. Announcements

Public Health Pathway with Bulloch County High Schools begins Fall 2023 as an online course. Nandi will be the instructor.

College of Public Health has a new strategic initiative for Community Engagement, Health Equity and Addiction Recovery. Please contact Stacy if you would like to connect with this initiative.
